Safety Instruction Guide for Casefeed Adapter for Dillon XL650/XL750

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the Casefeed Adapter for Dillon XL650/XL750. This guide provides important safety instructions and guidelines to ensure the safe and effective use of this product. Please read this document carefully before installation and use.

General Safety Guidelines

- Always follow the manufacturer's instructions for installation and usage.
- Ensure the product is compatible with your Dillon XL650 or XL750 reloading press.
- Inspect the adapter for any visible damage before use. Do not use if damaged.
- Keep the adapter out of reach of children and vulnerable individuals.
- Report any incidents or unsafe conditions to the relevant authorities.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Use the Casefeed Adapter only for its intended purpose, which is to facilitate the feeding of brass cases into the Dillon XL650 and XL750 presses.
- Avoid using the adapter with incompatible calibers or types of brass cases.
- Do not attempt to modify the adapter in any way. Alterations can compromise safety and functionality.
- Ensure that the adapter is securely attached to the press before operating.
- Always wear appropriate safety gear, such as safety glasses, when using the reloading press.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Installation:

- Ensure the reloading press is turned off and unplugged before installation.
- Remove any existing case feed components from the press.
- Align the Casefeed Adapter with the mounting points on the Dillon XL650 or XL750.
- Securely attach the adapter using the provided hardware, ensuring it is firmly in place.

2. Usage:

- Load the brass cases into the adapter according to the manufacturer's specifications.
- Turn on the reloading press and begin operation.
- Monitor the feeding process closely to ensure smooth operation. If you notice any binding or catching, stop the press immediately and inspect the adapter.
- After use, turn off and unplug the reloading press.

Disposal Instructions

- When the Casefeed Adapter reaches the end of its life or is no longer usable, dispose of it in accordance with local regulations.
- Do not dispose of the adapter in regular household waste. Check for local recycling programs that accept PETG materials.
